HOW'S YOUR HEALTH?
By Dr. W. F. Thompson

Beneath this slab
Lies Jonathan Doe;
He died because
He worried so.

A stitch in time saves blood poison.

Too many folks pay the preacher
and play the devil.

The communion cup's a public cup,
and that's a cup forbidden.

"Don't drink of this water,"
Said a sign by the road,
"For the water's polluted,
As a test of it showed."

Perhaps you've noticed that a cow
never feeds her baby dirty milk.

Some are boosters for better health,
while others throw trash in the alley.

When folks select a recreation resort
they are usually more interested in who's in the swim than what's in the water.

In quest of health
He lost his health,
And started out to find it;
He scattered checks
From Maine to Mex.—
The doctors didn't find it.

Substituting one odor for another by spraying odorous compounds, is not disinfection in any sense of the word.

Burning a little sulphur in a room does not destroy microbes. To be effective, the room must be tightly sealed and the gas liberated in a highly concentrated form.

Who eats red meat
And drinks red wine
Will cash his check
Before it's time.

One hat won't fit all heads, nor one diet all people.

Well, anyway, it's usually a crank
that starts something.

Eat soup for lunch; it gives you punch and sends the doctor begging.

When vessels are brittle
And your liver is hard,
Do nothing but whittle—
It's safer, Old Pard.

Don't borrow your neighbor's hair brush; he may have trouble of his own.

To the Editor:
I am enclosing herewith a copy of a letter I sent to the police commissioner.

I have no other way of sending a message to my friends in Torrance except through the medium of your valued paper. May I request a small space in your columns?

To the Law-Abiding Citizens of Torrance—Greeting:
I do not belong to any secret organization nor church. I have always enjoyed the "let alone" brand of freedom just so long as it did not interfere with other folks. There is one brand of "let alone liberty" which will not work; I have proved it.
"Let whiskey alone and it will let you alone" is a lie. I know from sad personal experience the results of a man's drunkenness.
I appeal to you. Do not make any compromise with this attack on the policemen who have been brave enough to carry out our police commissioner's orders. Let us wish him success in cleaning out the bootleg peddlers, and help these men in uniform by encouraging words and by acting on their side.
What does it matter if you and I are searched? If we are innocent of wrongdoing, we are glad of a chance to let people know.
Here is where
"The Colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady
Are sisters under the skin."
You were sorry for Frances Wilson when she was hurt—and she was seriously injured. I thank you for your many kindnesses to us in our time
of trouble.
My children are some of your future citizens. They own their home in your town. Make it safe for decent people to live.
Stand by your police commissioner.
It is an opportunity to help, if only by a good word.
EUGENIA MOOD WILSON.
